Another Wonderful Year At Sweetwater

Walter Kidd takes a picture of Judy McGuire after her 60th birthday 'bucket-list jump'. His wife, Cheryl, congratulates her because she also 'jumped' for her 70th 'bucket-list' wish.

Resident Flies High For Birthday

Sweetwater RV Resort

On March 7, our Sun RV Resort Appreciation Day Picnic was enjoyed by all who attended. It was a beautiful day of games and prizes, food, drink and music. Afterwards, many people went to Skydive City to watch our own Judy McGuire jump for her 60th birthday. She had been scheduled to jump several times in the days before, but weather wasn't cooperating. This day, despite low cloud coverage, she was determined to meet her 'bucket list' wish, and she did! She was all smiles before and after and said it was an amazing experience.

Many people were present for the birthday jump, and a more experienced 'jumper' from two years ago, Cheryl Kidd, congratulated Judy. Cheryl jumped for her 70th birthday 'bucket list' wish as well – have we started something here?

On March 8 at 1 p.m., the ninth annual 'Twisted Stitches'

Veteran Recalls Korean Conflict

Marine Won't Forget 'The Forgotten War'

It has been 68 years since he was deployed to Korea but Murdoch Ford remembers it like it was yesterday.

Ford, 83, of Zephyrhills, joined the U.S. Marine Corps when he was just 15 years old and living in Bayonne, N.J.

He and his siblings had been orphaned and he was the oldest of five children so Ford joined the Marine Corps to help provide some money.

"I made $84 a month," Ford said.

The Korean War began June 5, 1950; the day he graduated from boot camp at Parris Island, S.C.

"None of us had ever heard of Korea," he said.

Ford was a Private First Class and – while still at age 15 – was promoted to Corporal while he was on a ship going to Korea.

"They promoted me because of my job. I was a tank driver," Ford said.

His tank, which was called Lulu, was a M26 Pershing that was a leftover from World War II. Ford said there were five tanks in his company.

The company's primary objective was to locate and destroy enemy tanks and support both the Marine Corps and the U.S. Army.

"We went wherever we were sent," Ford said.

After Lulu was heavily damaged during combat an officer took him to

Marine Corps Band Strikes A Chord

Thousands Enjoy Patriotic Music On The Courthouse Lawn

by Joe Potter

Murdoch Ford, 83, stood ramrod straight as the U.S. Marine Corps Parris Island Band played the Armed Forces Medley to close out an hour-long program on March 26.

“Oh, I love the band. I’d travel 100 miles just to see them,” said Ford, of Zephyrhills, who had been a tank commander during the Korean War.

He enlisted in the Marine Corps when he was 15 years old to help provide money for his mother and four siblings. He made $84 a month.

The Korean War started the day Ford finished boot camp – June 5, 1950. “We had never heard of Korea,” he said.

He was joined by about 2,500 other people to enjoy the band’s music outside the Historic Courthouse in Dade City. The Marine musicians were greeted with a standing ovation and a resounding round of applause as they took their places on the north side of the courthouse square at 3 p.m.

Small American flags lined Seventh Street for a couple of miles in each direction and surrounded the old courthouse to add patriotic emphasis for the band’s visit.

“It made my day to hear ‘Stars and Stripes Forever,’” said Brian Uppercue of the Dade City Police Department.

The crowd was seated several rows deep in a semicircle from the east side of the lawn all the way around to the west side. It was the first time county commissioners ever allowed seating on the courthouse lawn, which is a restricted area; throngs of people were also sitting or standing along Seventh and Sixth Streets and Meridian

Avenue.

Several folks said they were enthusiastic about the band’s performance.

“It’s magnificent,” said Steve Brown of the Rotary Club of Dade City.

Allen Altman said numerous people were to thank for organizing the band’s Dade City appearance.

They included Greg and Cynthia Armstrong from the Chasco Festival, the Pasco County Commissioners, the Greater Dade City Chamber of Commerce, Dade City Public Works, Dade City Police Department, Pasco County Fire Rescue and Beef O’Brady’s.

Beef’s owner Todd Bachelor made sure the band had a meal before setting up the 12,000 pounds of equipment that is used at each performance.

“I think this is wonderful. We need to do all that we can to support our people who are in uniform,” said Linea Paulson, a volunteer with Habitat for Humanity of East & Central Pasco.

It was announced following the event that the U.S. Marine Corps Parris Island Band would definitely be visiting Dade City again next year.

Prior to the performance, Bob Hatfield, an aide to U.S. Rep. Gus Bilirakis, R-FL (12), was presented with a Friend of Farm Bureau award from state Sen. Wilton Simpson, president of Pasco County Farm Bureau. The congressman was unable to attend because of an illness in his family.

One of the people watching the band play was quickly, quietly and professionally cared for by Pasco County Fire Rescue CFR with the assistance of DCPD, after the gentleman became short of breath while standing during the national anthem.

a supply depot and told him to “get a tank.” So, he picked out a new brown one and drove off. That tank was called Ugly Duckling, Ford said, because it was an Army tank. The Marines used green tanks and the Army used brown tanks.

“Here I was with an Army tank and I was assigned to a Marine anti-tank company,” Ford said, laughing.

He spent five years of active duty in the Marine Corps and 11 years in the reserves and left as a Staff Sergeant.

Ford received a Purple Heart for receiving shrapnel in his lungs during combat.

New Year's Eve with David Teague. Residents had water aerobics, bowling, paper crafts and scrapbooking, bridge, the annual lighted golf cart parade, crafts, stitch and chat, ice cream socials, "dirty santa" Christmas Eve gift exchange and Christmas dinner. During this busy season, some residents enjoyed the "adult" coloring time on the calendar.

During January, many of our friends from north of the border arrived and all activities were in full swing! Tennis, shuffleboard, hand and foot and pickleball are now daily events. Residents enjoyed Majestic McMuffin and pancake and french toast breakfasts, nickel Bingo, guitar lessons, yet more dances with T-n-T, Majestic concert series shows and birthday celebrations.

February was a bit warmer than normal, but it could not stop our residents from enjoying ROMEO (Retired Old Men Eating Out) breakfasts, horseshoes, bocce, organized bike rides, line dancing, card bingo, pot luck dinners, annual golf tournament, chili contest, Texas Hold 'Em, line dancing, "I Need That," double deck pinochle, fishing trips, Majestic Oaks baking contests, a Super Bowl viewing party and a Valentine's dance with The Mustangs. Residents needing to downsize took full advantage of the park-wide yard sale and craft sale. The hungry visitors and residents enjoyed the bake sale and hot dog lunch!

March came in like a lion, with all events running at full force and then some! Including Euchre, another baking contest, CLEO (Classy Ladies Eating Out), dances with Mark and Miller. The outside activities hosted a shuffleboard and tennis tournaments. Pickleball and tennis were also night time activities on the lighted courts. Residents enjoyed their appreciation day and the "Last Hoorah" party.

March and April have seen many "lasts" - the last this, the last that - but April does not bring the "last" of our enjoyable times with our friends! There are many friends that stay into May and some even longer! We will continue to enjoy coffee, donuts and park news once a month and planned pot luck dinners and holiday parties, just to name a few.

Next season we will enjoy our friends in the fall as they all return. We also look forward to adding a few new activities for our residents to enjoy. Maybe a float in the Founders' Day parade? Maybe some Bunko? More inside/outside parties with music? The possibilities are endless! Naturally we will continue all of our current events, but we hope the returning residents and our new friends bring some new ideas with them!

MORNINGSIDE RV ESTATES

Morningside Drive Cleaned

Submitted By Lynn Kosto
Morningside RV Estates

The first Saturday of every month Morningside Drive gets a face lift! The Morningside RV Estate residents clean each side of the road from U.S. 301 to Old Lakeland Highway. A big thank you goes out to Donnie Connors who organized this activity. It has been an active group of men and women who come to clean early in the morning. Residents gathered between three and 15 bags of trash while cleaning up Morningside Drive. The residents were there to help beautify the area.

Health And Wellness

Mental Wellness

How about a fresh start this season with a positive attitude? Mental health is defined as “a state of well-being in which the individual realizes his or her own abilities, can cope with the normal stresses of life, can work productively and fruitfully, and is able to make a contribution to his or her community”.

When relationships, financial issues or work environment overwhelm us, and our coping skills are poor, we can suffer from stress. Stress can be acute and manifest as anger, depression and anxiety, and also cause physical symptoms like chest pain, palpitations, headache etc. Stress can also lead to heart attacks and stroke. When an individual’s stress becomes chronic, the risk for harming themselves or others increases.

People with mental health problems can get well, and often recover completely with treatment and help. It is important to be aware of warning signs of a mental health problem and seek professional help if needed. Eating or sleeping too much or too little, loss of interest in usual activities, feeling helpless, having low energy, mood swings, inability to concentrate and thoughts of harm to oneself or others, are some of the warning signs of a mental health problem.

Good mental health is about developing positive coping skills, while avoiding negative coping skills, through practice. Good coping skills include the use of relaxation techniques when stressed, staying physically active, getting adequate sleep, connecting with others, setting time aside for vacations or hobbies, helping others and praying. Negative coping skills like drugs, excessive alcohol use, storing hurt feelings or denial can be harmful to mental health.

Looking after your mental health can positively impact your physical health, relationships, financial status and productivity. You can realize your full potential by making your mental wellness a top priority.

Gulfside Hospice Looking For Volunteers

Volunteer opportunities at Gulfside Hospice include sitting with patients, providing spiritual care and counseling, assisting with the Pet Peace of Mind program and helping in Gulfside’s administrative offices.

Thrift Shoppe volunteers are needed at the Gulfside Hospice Thrift Shoppes to help with accepting and sorting donations, organizing shelves and window displays, greeting customers and running the cash register.

Volunteers are also needed for helping at Gulfside’s Centers for Hospice Care by serving meals, answering phones and greeting guests.

Volunteer orientation sessions are scheduled throughout the month for anyone interested in becoming a volunteer.

Through the orientations, participants will learn about the valuable role Gulfside Hospice serves in our community and the various volunteer opportunities available to help care for patients and families during their most difficult times. Volunteers also receive specialized training in the area of their choice.

Volunteers must be at least 15 years old. For more information about how you can volunteer with Gulfside Hospice, call (800) 561-4883.

Naturally, a year in review would not be complete without a big thank you to our volunteers. They are what helps make Majestic Oaks a great place to winter. Whenever a hand is needed, there is always someone there to give it. These volunteers are awesome! All of the activities and events are planned by the residents and the volunteer activity committee. The activity committee are residents who volunteer their time and talents to direct, coordinate, plan and oversee all activities in the community. It is a selfless volunteer job, but it is critical to happiness of our residents and guests.

Quilt Show and Tea was enjoyed by a roomful of people, mostly ladies. Gifts and cookies were donated by members. Vivian Ryburn still quilts and keeps in touch from her home in Kansas, but she isn't able to come to Florida any more. Participants particularly enjoyed being able to pick out their own gifts from the table this year.

The raffle quilt, made this season by group members, was won by Linda Cavanaugh. The proceeds from this raffle helps buy material and supplies for next year's group project. Many categories and prizes were awarded, all judged by the attendees this year.

On March 12 at 7 p.m., our Ice Cream Social also included bluegrass gospel music, with Catherine and Fred Lawrence, "Gator Creek" and friends. Catherine highlighted appreciation for Ron Jenkins, bass player, for his last and 14th season playing with them in Sweetwater. Ron actually met Catherine and Fred in Nova Scotia, Canada, at a festival and they kept running into him afterwards. Finally, he suggested they bring their RV down to Sweetwater, and they have been coming here every season since. He actually had two bookings waiting for them when they arrived that first year and it's never stopped since.

Ron and his wife, Rita, have now sold their place in Sweetwater and have returned home. Rita will also be missed, especially for her comedy in the pool and on the stage. Ron has also enjoyed accompanying, with bass, for Don on fiddle and Wayne on guitar.

On March 17, a St. Patrick's Day Parade and Lunch was held at Settlers' Rest - next year will be Sweetwater's turn to host again. Doris Steele has been involved in chair/co-chair/advisor of this parade for five/six years and she has wintered in Sweetwater for more than 20 years now. Her main focus is for everyone to have lots of fun!

Again, this year, the group with Doris in it won Best of Show for their "Hillbilly Shotgun Wedding." The whole group included the pregnant bride, kilted groom, Pastor, parents and wedding party. When they arrived at the judge's table, they had a whole routine ready for them in order to get the idea of what they were all about. I guess it worked.

Our own Cinda McCormick, one of two volunteer Park photographers, is seen riding her bike with her friend, Edie Frye. Cinda won 1st prize for 'single bikes' and many other awards were presented to people in different categories at the lunch banquet.

Gladys Sanfason, 96, was sitting on her walker watching the parade, with friends old and new around her. Gladys will be 97 years on July 4 and she had her home moved to Sweetwater 11 years ago from another park. She is able to stay nine months now since there is always family and friends around to help her. She does fly back and forth to Maine for three months of the year. Gladys was born in England and her family, including her sister who is now 99 years old, moved to Massachusetts when she was six years old.

Gladys keeps very active and feels that's a good reason why she's doing so well. She plays poker and Mexican train twice a week, swims and plays bingo once a week. She attends any socials and music entertainment/jams that interest her, and she still taps her feet when some of the familiar line-dancing songs come on - she remembers all the steps! Gladys facilitated line-dancing classes coming to Sweetwater shortly after she arrived.

FOREST LAKE ESTATES

A Goodbye Message

Looking Back And Looking Forward

Submitted by Jim Dill
 Forest Lake Estates

Where have the past five months gone? Hard to believe it is April already and many of our family and friends are heading home for the summer. The past eight months have been fast and furious and we have accomplished so much during this time frame. I want to highlight some of the key events.

Jim Dill

We formed your new HOA on June 15, 2016 and have accomplished so much. We elected an interim board and started our relationship with ELS. Our communications have been extremely good. Steve's primary objective was to ensure we all understood his position and he understood our needs and desires. In January, the HOA members elected a new Board and this new Board has been very successful in continuing this relationship with ELS. In addition, we revised and received membership approval of our Bylaws, and transitioned the Social Club as the Social Committee under the HOA.

We worked closely with Steve on several key projects (new Putt-Putt course; lighting for tennis courts, putt-putt course, and club house; updating the new front gate; rewriting the Rules and Regulations, held the first-ever health fair; and conducting several lectures from Florida Hospital Zephyrhills).

We are looking forward to their 2017 projects, such as a new divider for the club house, refinishing the pool bathroom, adding a patio kitchen, and resurfacing the pool. The plan is to complete these over the summer months so we can all enjoy them this coming fall. Our activities under Vince Boido have been wonderful. All our activities (putt-putt, cards, tennis, swimming, line dancing, shuffleboard, horseshoes, pickleball, etc.) kept everyone busy and all had lots of fun. Our dinner dances have pretty much sold out and all the other club house social activities have done extremely well under Toni Beaton's leadership. She has done an absolutely wonderful job.

I would be remiss if I didn't say thanks to the former Social Club Leadership (Marion, Cas, and Steve) for all they have done this past year and over the past 20 years for all the residents. Membership has surpassed all our expectations. Today we have over 700 households in the HOA. Janice Collins has done a tremendous job and has made this very difficult job look so easy. She is already starting her preparations for our fall campaign for 2018 membership. Finally, Eileen Lane has done a superb job trying to coordinate all our activities and to put out a monthly calendar.

The rest of the Board is busy with so many other activities such as conducting rent negotiations with ELS, conducting a wonderful patio party, working water and sewage issues, starting the development of our new Patriots' Park near the gazebo, initiating a park-wide recycling program, etc. We will have a very busy summer ahead of us and will send out emails to all HOA members to keep you apprised of status of projects and HOA activities.

Finally, thanks to all who have volunteered their valuable time to make all our events successful this year. Without your participation, we could not have had so many activities and a few would have done all the work. As you travel back to your summer homes just know your HOA will be working on your behalf to continue our communications with ELS.

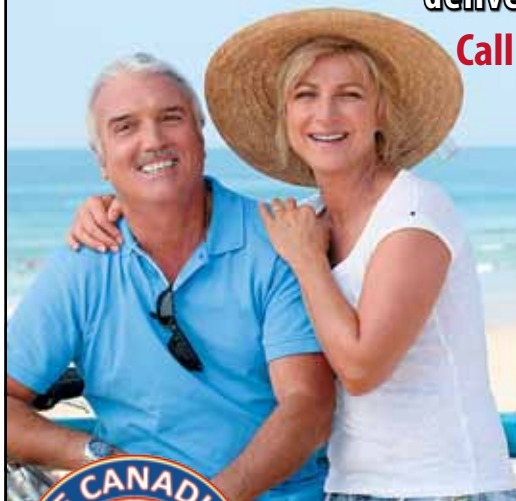

We had our last lecture series on April 12. Dr. Maulik Bhalani talked about "Understanding Pain and How to Control It." We had the normal refreshments and Dr. Bhalani also provided more food for everyone that day. We appreciate the turnout for this last event ... they have given us lots of their time.

Safe travels to all of you and see you back here in the fall.
 Hope you all have a Happy Easter.

Simpson Environmental Services employees work last Tuesday at the future site of the Rural King Supply Store on Gall Boulevard. A July 17 opening is planned.

Rural King Due In Zephyrhills Supply Store Going Into Former Kmart Site

Rural King Supply has announced plans to open a store in mid July inside the former Kmart in the Town View Square.

The company will employ between 75 and 80 full and part-time workers for the retail operation and will be using local electricians, plumbers and demolition workers to refurbish the 85,000-square-foot storefront.

Rural King spent about a year planning its move to 7422 Gall Blvd., which will be its 101st store in the country and the eighth in Florida, according to Brian Hutchins, the company's vice president of Business and Development.

"We're excited about the Zephyrhills store pushing us over the 100 mark," he said. "We will be bringing several millions of dollars of retail sales to the area."

The demographics of Zephyrhills attracted Rural King to the area, Hutchins said.

"We are a farm and home store and we depend a lot on agricultural and rural customers. We have food items, lawn and garden items and pet food so we feel we have a lot to offer everybody," he said.

Rural King also carries hardware and automotive items, tools, sporting goods, housewares, clothing, footwear, toys and domestic items according to the company's website.

"There's a lot of business out there for all of us," Hutchins said regarding other retail stores that Rural King will be competing against, most notably TSC Tractor Supply across the street at 7431 Gall Blvd.

The Mattoon, Ill.-based company aims to open the Zephyrhills store as well as new stores in Ocala and Gainesville on July 17, with an eye on setting up more stores in the Sunshine State.

Holocaust Presentation Details Flight To Freedom

A Saint Leo University campus audience recently heard a presentation about the Holocaust of World War II. Pieter Kohnstam, along with his wife Sue, presented "Narrow Escape - A Flight to Freedom," through the sponsorship of the Saint Leo University Center for Catholic-Jewish Studies. Kohnstam was only 6 when he and his parents fled Amsterdam in 1942 to escape the Nazis. The Kohnstams were Jewish and originally from Germany and went into hiding in Amsterdam. The Kohnstams had many near brushes with death, but finally escaped to Argentina. Pieter Kohnstam, now nearing 81, lives in Venice, Fla. He and his wife now do educational presentations.
